

“When I wander far from home, I’ll have courage. I’m not alone...” because I have Wandering Wava with me! Move over Flat Stanley. Wava is here for some adventures! While we have missed out on the usual district convention travel escapades, Wandering Wava is ready for a new journey. Print Wandering Wava out, (we suggest giving her a quick laminating or layer of packing tape), and she is wandering ready! Where will Wava wander with you? Maybe to the grocery store? To work? To the gym? To a virtual chapter meeting? On Spring Break? To band practice? Wherever Wava wanders, snap a pic and post it using the hashtag #WanderingWava. Be sure they are TBS appropriate! We can’t wait to see where Wandering Wava Winds Up! Oh, and make sure she comes with you to 2021 NatCon!
